

Banbury SC

Inaugural Ascot Stakes Hobbyhorse Race Meeting

11 June 2011

By Kind Permission of
Jane Tarver – Commodore
Chief Steward – Ian Mackenzie
Clerk of the Course – Mike Eves

Enjoy a lovely evening at our “lake view” race course. Cheer your hobby horse and jockey as they triumph over the hazards of our exciting track, see them fall at the jumps or the water, under the careful control of your trainer.

All from your table with 2-course dinner, wine by the bottle and normal bar facilities.

Not an Owner, then Mr Vice’s Trust Me Tote will be available for race goers to place modest wagers on the hobby horse of their choice.

Race Course Opens – 7.00 pm Saturday 11th June

Practice Race – 7.15 pm.

Prizes for:-

Best Ladies Hat
Best Hobby Horse
Best Dressed Jockey

- ∨ Owners/Syndicates – Bring your hobby horse for this exciting event
- ∨ Bid to enter your horse to run the exciting “Banbury Lake” track
- ∨ Hobby Horses available for rent on the night
- ∨ 6 Race “Card” for the night. 4 “Entries” per race.
- ∨ Race entrants must provide a Jockey and Trainer
- ∨ Cash Prize for winning owners
- ∨ Full Rules explained on the night.
- ∨ Chief Stewards decision is final

Prices – Dinner £7.00/adult, £3.50 (under 16).

Race Entry Fee/Hobby Horse - by auction, minimum £1.00

Tote – Minimum bet £0.50

To book your place send an email to social@banburysailing.org.uk